GLENWOOD CEMETERY.
THIS BEAUTIFUL BURIAL PLACE of the dead having just been dedicated with appropriate ceremonies for the purpose, is now open for the reception of the remains of deceased persons.

The Mausoleum has capacity for a hundred bodies, in which such friends of the dead, as may apply, can place the departed until they select their graves.

The plan of the incorporators is one of equality in regard to the lots, which will not be put up publicly for sale, (although they usually bring a premium) making the early selection of lots the most desirable.

Until an office established in the city of Washington, applications will be punctually attended to at the present office, in the east wing of the building on entering the Cemetery.

Visitors are requested not to drive fast through the Cemetery grounds.

N. B. Glenwood is situated a short distance due north of the Capitol.

TAKE NOTICE.

NEW GOODS JUST RECEIVED.
P. W. BROWNING, MERCHANT TAILOR, under the United States Hotel, would respectfully inform his customers and the public generally, that he has just received New Fall and Winter Goods, in great variety. Such as Cloths, Cassimeres, and Vestings, of the latest importation, and is prepared to make up the most fashionable man, and at low rates of prices.

Having made arrangements to go into the "Ready-made Clothing business," he can offer to those wishing to purchase a stock of Clothing, not inferior to any in this city, and not made up at the north, as is usually the case with work sold here, but cut in his own establishment, and made up by his own hands, in this full season, at low rates of prices. He is enabled, therefore, to compete with northern work in point of prices, and as to quality, he will leave for those who favor him with a call to judge.

He can sell whole suits, Coat, Pants, and Vest, at the following low rates: Good suit for business purposes, out of cloth and buttons, for the similar suit, $10 to $15 Dress and Frock Coats, from $10 to $15 Overcoats of different styles, from $12 to $20 Black and fancy Pants, from $5 to $10 Suits and vest, from $12 to $20 to $25 This stock of Clothing is of a superior quality, and has been made up since he received the fall and winter fashions.

He keeps constantly on hand a large assortment of fancy articles—such as gloves, cravats, collars, umbrellas, &c.

Sole agent for the sale of Scott's Report of Fashions in this city.

VOL. 3.

PROSPECTUS

"WASHINGTON SENTINEL."
I PROPOSE to publish in the city of Washington, in September, a political newspaper, in the name of the WASHINGTON SENTINEL.

In doing so, it is proper I should make known the principles it will maintain, and the policy it will advocate.

It will support cordially and earnestly the principles of the Democratic party of the United States it does not propose to be the organ of any Department of the Government, except in so far as an immediate maintenance of the doctrine of that party may represent its opinions and express its views.

It will not be ambitious to commend itself to the people by a blind flattery of their rulers. It will solicit public support by the bold avowal of principles which are common to the genuine Democrats of the Union, and by the condemnation of all such as may conflict with such doctrine.
It will endeavor to deserve the title of the organ of the Democratic party of the United States.

The Sentinel will maintain, as a fundamental principle of that great party, the States-rights Union between them by the ratification of the Constitution as a compact; by which, also, they created the Federal Government, and delegated to it, as their common agent, the powers expressly specified in it, with an explicit reservation of all others to the States, or to their separate governments. The exercise of any powers beyond these is delegated, in therefore, an usurpation of the reserved authority of the States by the agent of their own creation.

The Sentinel will uphold and defend the Union upon the basis of the rights of the States, and the Constitution—and thus by resolutely guarding the latter, it will more effectually strengthen and perpetuate the former.

With regard to the exercise of the powers of the Federal Government, the Sentinel shall express its opinion on all questions of national importance, and it will not be deterred by the exercise of power which has not been delegated by the Constitution, according to a strict and fair interpretation of its language and spirit; and that it will not seek to attain its ends by an objection to the exercise of constitutional power, for the direct attainment of which it has no delegation of power.

In other words, all powers exercised must be clearly granted by the Constitution, and it will not be used for any purpose, except such as is clearly intended by the Constitution.

In respect to the internal administration of the Government, the Sentinel will sustain the settled policy of the Democratic party, and will not be deterred by the exercise of power which has not been delegated by the Constitution, according to a strict and fair interpretation of its language and spirit; and that it will not seek to attain its ends by an objection to the exercise of constitutional power, for the direct attainment of which it has no delegation of power.

The Sentinel will advocate such a progressive foreign policy as will be consistent with the principles of the Democratic party, and will not be deterred by the exercise of power which has not
strict and fair interpretation of its language and
spirit; and that it will not seek to attain its ends
by an objection to the exercise of constitutional
no delegation of power.

The national policy of the world in this age is characterized by the great sense of weakness of the nations of the Old World, and the ambitious restlessness of others, a common motive to colonial extension has developed itself.

Our settled determination to repel interference from abroad with our domestic concerns, will prompt us to avoid it in the affairs of other countries, unless by their foreign or foreign policy,
